NOTICE OF AN INITIAL ORDER BECOMING A FINAL ORDER

All parties are hereby notified that on November 19, 1999, the Initial Order entered in this matter became a Final Order pursuant to T.C.A. §4-5-318(f)(3), no party having filed a Petition for Appeal to the Agency pursuant to T.C.A. §4-5-315, within the ten (10) days permitted for such petitions, and the Agency having failed to issue a Notice of Intention to Review within the ten (10) days permitted under T.C.A. §4-5-315(b).

THE FINAL ORDER MAY BE REVIEWED IN THE FOLLOWING MANNER

Within ten (10) days after the effective date of the Final Order, as listed above, any party may petition the Administrative Judge for reconsideration of the Final Order. If no action is taken within twenty (20) days of filing of the petition, it is deemed denied. See T.C.A. §4-5-317.

(However, the filing of a Petition for Reconsideration does not itself act to extend the sixty-day period, if the Petition is not granted.) A reviewing court may also order a stay of the Final Order upon appropriate terms. See T.C.A. §4-5-322 and §4-5-317.

IN THE MATTER OF:

V.

DOCKET NO. 12.06-56-0651J
File No. 96-003

This matter currently pends on the Division's Motion for Summary Judgment. Respondent was given until October 15, 1999, to respond to this motion. No response was received.

Findings of Fact

On or about June 4, 1998, the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) rendered a final ruling against the Respondent barring him from membership or association in any capacity with that body for a period of six years for, inter alia, misrepresentation and providing false reassurances. These were among the grounds alleged in the original action filed by the Division.

2. This action was brought on January 30, 1996, and Leave to Amend was granted on December 18, 1998, six months after the NYSE ruling, and the Complaint was thereafter amended

Conclusions of Law

T.C.A. §48-2-112(a)(F) provides the Commissioner may revoke an individual's registration if required by the public interest and if the agent is the subject of an order suspending or expelling him from a national securities exchange, provided such proceeding is instituted within a year of the date of the order of suspension or expulsion.

2 The order entered by the NYSE is based on grounds which constitute grounds for an order revoking registration See, T.C.A. §48-2-112(a)(2)(F).

3. Based upon the Order of the NYSE, it is in the public interest that the Respondent's registration be REVOKED.

4 Should the Division seek any fine, it should file a separate motion within thirty days of this Order, setting forth the amount sought, and its views as to why such amount is appropriate Respondent shall have thirty days to respond. Otherwise, this Order shall become a Final Order in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act.

This Initial Order entered and effective this 7th day of November, 1999.
